

46-48 Broadway Street, Cobram

Landmark Cobram Residence

Rich in history and sitting proudly on a large 1869 square metre property, is this 1920's built, federation home.

Filled with charm and character this home boasts two generous bedrooms, large living spaces and wide verandahs. An older style kitchen with walk-in-pantry, light-filled formal dining room with lovely bay window and built-in bookshelf. Spacious loungeroom with cosy solid fuel heater with feature mantle and decorative cornice. Bedrooms are both a generous size with picture rails.

Rear deck over looking the backyard with established trees and gardens. Lock up colorbond shedding with roller doors and second shed/storage room with original combined bath and shower. Lovely verandah across the front of this home with timber lined ceiling, screen room and well maintained yard with sprinkler system.

Homes like this are rarely available in such a close in location. Within walking distance to all Cobram has to offer.
