

Design Difference

This lovely architectural designed custom built home is situated the River-end of town in a quiet court location.

Bathed with light throughout the home with large windows gives you a sense of spaciousness. The high pitched ceiling in the kitchen/living open area flows through to the spacious bedrooms and separate study. The fully functional kitchen has quality Smeg appliances and plenty of bench space & cupboard storage. The bathroom & ensuite are well thought out spaces with again lots of light streaming in. There is the convenience of direct access to the large double garage from the home. It is comfortably climate controlled with ducted reverse cycle heating and cooling throughout. The exterior windows have outdoor blinds also.

The outdoor area over looks the neat established garden has a northerly aspect for enjoying your morning coffee in the sunshine. There is yard access as well for the caravan or boat.

A truly excellently designed home with a difference.
