Cooinda – A Truly Unique Craftsman Built Retreat

A breathtaking 2.46-acre property that offers a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to own a stunning craftsman-built home surrounded by nature's beauty. Set amongst an array of diverse trees, fruit trees, and vibrant plants. And with just a 10-minute drive from Cobram, you can enjoy the tranquility of rural living while being close to town amenities.

As you drive down the tree-lined driveway, the towering Elm trees create a serene, secluded atmosphere that welcomes you home. This home combines timeless craftsmanship with modern comforts. A 2.5m-wide bull nose veranda invites you to relax and take in the surroundings, while inside, soaring vaulted pine ceilings, exposed Oregon beams, and double hung gothic windows provide views of your private oasis.

The chef's kitchen features exquisite blackbutt floating bench, a Belling 900mm cook centre, and a large butler's pantry. The spacious living area includes additional sitting spaces, two reverse-cycle split systems, a cosy wood heater, and gas points throughout. Three bedrooms each have French doors opening onto the verandas, with vaulted ceilings adding grandeur. The master suite provides direct access to a beautiful bathroom with mini orb walls, a cast-iron bath, 900mm shower, toilet, and a stunning vanity. Great size laundry with double concrete trough.

Upstairs, a loft bedroom offers extra privacy, making this a four-bedroom home.

The 2.5m x 10m alfresco area is perfect for year-round entertaining,
