Well Established Local Business – Cobram Curtains & Blinds

An excellent opportunity exists to take over a long-standing and highly regarded local business, Cobram Curtains & Blinds, a trusted name in the region for quality window furnishings and personalised service.

Servicing Cobram and the surrounding areas, this well-established business has built a strong reputation over many years for supplying and installing a wide range of curtains, blinds and window covering solutions. With a loyal customer base, consistent local demand and strong word-of-mouth referrals, it presents an ideal opportunity for an owner-operator or someone looking to expand their existing business.

Cobram Curtains & Blinds offers a turnkey operation with established supplier relationships, a recognised brand in the community and the benefit of ongoing repeat and referral clientele. The business is well positioned within the local market and provides a solid foundation for continued success under new ownership.

Whether you're looking for a lifestyle business or an investment with growth potential, this is a fantastic opportunity to step into a respected local enterprise.
